Expressions of Interest for the position of CHIEF COMMISSIONER

The Australian Air League Inc. is committed to extending the benefits of being a member of our Organisation, widely recognised as the Primary School of Aviation, to boys and girls throughout Australia.

The position of Chief Commissioner is the most senior position in the Organisation and is responsible and accountable to the Council of the Australian Air League Inc. for the ongoing management and control of the League and its activities.

The position is a non-salaried position with reasonable out of pocket expenses being reimbursed.

The position will suit experienced professionals who are able to develop and pursue focused programs through a range of conventional and innovative strategies. Real and sustained results will be measured.

The successful candidate will know and respect the volunteer ethos. They will be sound communicators and work effectively with other people. They will think and act strategically, be sound resource managers and, above all, demonstrate a strong track record of achievement.

The successful candidate must be able to demonstrate a strong commitment to the philosophy, principles and methods of the League and an understanding of the way the Organisation works. As with all adult leaders in the League, they will undergo the necessary external Government checks to obtain the required clearance to work unsupervised with children.

Whilst the League is looking for all of these attributes in the successful candidate this does not prohibit any person from submitting their expression of interest.

Expressions of Interest should include a letter addressing the competencies as well as a detailed resume which demonstrates the qualifications and experience required. Expressions of Interest will be considered only where the required competencies are specifically addressed.

Australian Air League

ROLE TITLE

Chief Commissioner

THE ORGANISATION

The Australian Air League is a national uniformed youth Organisation that has, as its prime goal, the encouragement of an interest in aviation as a career or as a hobby for the youth of Australia.

The Organisation is entirely self-funding and is staffed by volunteers who give their time generously to achieve its goals. The Australian Air League has no political, racial or religious connections.

The aims and objectives of the Australian Air League include:

1. To foster and develop a spirit of aviation in the youth of Australia.
2. Promote education and learning in all aspects of aviation, both past, present and future.
3. Promote the physical, social and personal development of Members.
4. Establish squadrons throughout Australia.
5. Promote the Australian Air League by collaborating with the local community.

The League's motto "A Vinculo Terrae" translates into "Free from the bonds of the Earth". This motto contains the very essence of flight into space.

AUSTRALIAN AIR LEAGUE MISSION STATEMENT - The Australian Air League is a youth Organisation which provides its members with the means to pursue an interest in the field of aviation, to achieve their full potential and become better citizens who can effectively serve our community.

WHO CAN JOIN?

Girls and boys from the age of 8 years through to 18 are eligible to join a Squadron as a cadet and participate in the weekly meetings and regular activities. On reaching the age of 18 many cadets choose to remain in the Organisation as Officers or Instructors, with some members having life-long associations with the Air League.

Adults who wish to join become Trainees and under the guidance of structured training programs can progress through the ranks. Aviation experience is not necessary if joining as an adult, as training is available. During this period of training, members learn the basic requirements to become an Officer and get to know other members and their positions within the Australian Air League.

Parents and supporters who would like to be involved but don't have time to attend regular Squadron activities can choose to join as Associate Members. They can also participate in the operation and activities of Squadron/Branch Committee.
